New Yorker on a Strike Throws 500 Persons Out of Work.

(By Associated Press)

WABASH, Ind., Oct. 22.—A peculiar damage suit has been filed in the Wabash Circuit Court, designed to test how far a contract between an employer and employee is binding. The plaintiff is N. Meyer, proprietor of a hat works, this city. When the works were established three years ago Oscar Bush, a printer, who had charge of the file-letters on the interior of hats, was brought from New York City under contract to do the work. He went at first paid $5 a week, and two years ago his wages were raised to $2.

A month ago he quit work, and said he would not return unless engaged for two years at $20 a week. This was agreed to by Mr. Meyer, and a written contract was drawn up and signed. Friday night Bush sent word that he wanted the balance due him, as he did not intend working longer, and a check for $22 was given him. Saturday morning he did not appear, and when reminded of his contract said he had no money and was owing $200 unless Mr. Meyer raised his wages to $3 a week.

Mr. Meyer declined to entertain this portion of the claim, and Bush then came to the factory, but restrained his assistant, insisting that he be engaged at $25 a week or risk his pay being stopped. A suit for $25,000 was begun against Bush.

Meanwhile, the factory is closed, 20 persons are out of work, and the new work will not start until the latter part of next week when a skilled printer can be hired and brought here.

The Improved Elastic Truss is the only truss in existence that is worn with absolute comfort night and day, as it relieves the rupture under pressure, and so quickly cures it that it effects a permanent and speedy cure without regard to the age of the patient; examination free.
